

Solution Overview

Pacific Northwest University Web Site Design

Published: December 2007

During 2007 4QTRS worked with PNWU to update the existing Web Site.

Situation

PNWU initiated a project to upgrade/migrate to the ASP.NET web platform from their aging legacy web site. To achieve this goal and ensure project success 4QTRS offered its' technical expertise and project management skills to complete the project chartering, design services, and new web site roll-out.

Solution

During the project chartering sessions 4QTRS assisted PNWU with creating a project plan that mapped out all of the project milestones and the tasks associated with each objective. This project plan was adhered to by 4QTRS and the PNWU team and as a result the new, updated Web Site was delivered and activated in time for the grand opening of the new College of Osteopathic Medicine.

The deliverable was a three-phased project wherein:

- 4QTRS conducted a Site Review, analysis and audit of the existing site needs and delivered a two-phased work plan to meet the goals and objectives of PNWU.
- Scoped out a two-phased work plan to roll out the new site by porting existing functionality and capabilities, followed by advanced, web-form features for new student supplemental applications.

Benefits

- ◆ Technical experience and expertise
4QTRS provided PNWU with very experienced subject matter experts as they related to Microsoft's ASP.NET development. Using these experts 4QTRS was able to shorten the development curve and deliver within the timeframe requirements of opening a new school.
- ◆ Project Management
4QTRS provided PNWU with a project plan and PNWU was able to follow this plan and complete the key deliverables of their project.
